Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Reported that the President's Committee will be in Washington on Tuesday, 26 February, and had requested two briefings on that date at 10:00 and 11:00 respectively.

Mr. Amory:

Noted that Senator Symington had called him and asked for a briefing today on the Soviet Guided Missile Program. Mr. Amory said he had begged off due to pressure of other commitments but had indicated he could possibly do this next week. The Director asked DD/I to get together with Norman Paul and check this request out with Senator Russell.
